

Special tax for interest and principal.

Notice of election.

Manner of holding election.

New registration may be ordered.

Books to be kept open twenty days.

Vote to be counted.

Form of ballot.

000) of its bonds, with interest coupons attached, and authorize the levy of a tax sufficient and available to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund for their redemption, the proceeds of which bonds to be used in laying out, establishing, building, constructing, repairing, and maintaining the public roads and bridges in said county?" The said board of county commissioners shall for at least thirty days before said election give public notice of such election, and the purpose thereof, by publication in a newspaper published in said county and by posting notice thereof at the courthouse door of said county.

SEC. 28. That any election held under the provisions of this act shall be conducted in the same manner as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for holding elections for the members of the General Assembly, except as herein otherwise stated. The said board of county commissioners shall appoint the registrars and judges of election and any other election officers necessary for holding said election, and registration and challenge of voters shall be conducted in the same manner as is now or may hereafter be provided for election of the members of the General Assembly, except as herein set forth. The said board of county commissioners may or may not, in their discretion, order a new registration for any election held under this act. In case no new registration is ordered the registration books of each voting precinct shall be kept open for twenty days prior to the election for the purpose of allowing electors to register who have not theretofore registered in the township or voting precinct of their residence, and who are entitled to register for said election, and the registration books shall close on Saturday next preceding the election, and the registrar shall transcribe the names of all persons who have registered for former elections in their townships or voting precincts, and are otherwise qualified electors at said election upon a new registration book. The registrars are authorized and directed to register any person legally qualified and entitled to vote in their respective townships or voting precincts who apply for such purpose in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations now or hereafter may be provided for registering electors for the general election in said county.

SEC. 29. The vote cast at said election shall be counted at the close of the polls by the election officers and returned to the clerk of the said board of county commissioners of said county by one member of said election officers on the second day next succeeding the day of said election; and the said board of county commissioners, at their next regular meeting, or at a called meeting, shall tabulate and declare the results of the election, all of which shall be recorded in the minutes of said board of county commissioners, and no other recording and declaring of the result of said election shall be necessary. That at said election all qualified